Summary

Mr. Lodge is a Nationally Certified Professional Mediator (NCPM) who specializes in business conflicts and family business disputes, as well as family mediation. He has also been certified as an E-Mediator.

He is also a registered tax practitioner in the State of California with an emphasis on business taxation. His firm has been in business since 1984.

His business background includes entities in various industries with international facilities in manufacturing, construction projects, co-generation projects, real estate, healthcare and entertainment. He has represented major boxing professionals on financial and international tax issues, mediating issues between various boxing entities.

Mr. Lodge has owned a real estate firm, tax and accounting firm, mediation firm, healthcare staffing and a call center in Asia.

Mr. Lodge had his healthcare staffing firm certified by the Joint Commission on Healthcare and worked with medical staff and medical facilities on HIPAA. Mediation of workplace and professional conflicts.

He has a solid background family mediation - separation, parenting plans and divorce. He has fit well into these categories because of his tax and financial background with his clients. His accounting experience allows him to walk through the assets and liabilities in a way that is explained in normal terms to clients under stress so they understand how the process works and where the numbers are going to each party.

Mr. Lodge has written two books - "Ethically Thinking, It's Not That Hard" and "Daily Strategy, Mediating Life and Business".
